INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

To the management of Foundation “Caucasus Institute for Peace, Democracy and Development”

We have audited the accompanying Statement of Cash Receipts and disbursements of Caucasus Institute for Peace, Democracy and Development’s (hereinafter - Organization) Project #20140207 “Local Initiatives for Local Development” for the period from 1 August 2016 to 31 January 2017. The project is in accordance with the Agreement of Cooperation (Hereinafter - Agreement) enter into the Organization and bread for The World - Protestant Development Service (hereinafter - Brot) and summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

The statement of cash receipts and disbursements has been prepared by management according to the policies disclosed in the note 5.2 to the Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements (further “Accounting Policy”).

In our opinion, the Project #20140207 pertaining to the Agreement has been adhered to.

The Project Funds have been used exclusively for the purpose of the Project in accordance with the Agreement (including Letter of Approval, the Schedules of Budgeted expenses and Sources of Income) on promoting the above mentioned Project.

The statement of cash receipts and disbursements for the period from 1 August 2016 to 31 January 2017 is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with Accounting Policies disclosed in the note 5.2.

Basis of Accounting

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to the Accounting Policy of the Organization. The statement of cash receipts and disbursements are prepared to provide information to the Donors. As a result, the statement may not be suitable for another purpose.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the cash receipts and disbursements statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants’ Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the cash receipts and disbursements statements in Georgia, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the IESBA Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Cash Receipts and Disbursements

Management is responsible for the preparation of this Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements in accordance with the Accounting Policy, which is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements under the circumstances, and for the such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Cash Receipts and Disbursements Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these cash receipts and disbursements statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Statement of Cash Receipts and Disbursements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the cash receipts and disbursements statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor’s report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the cash receipts and disbursements statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the cash receipts and disbursements statements information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the cash receipts and disbursements statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
